SCHOLARSHIPS FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDY IN AUSTRALIA

Consult www.adsafrica.com.au for more information

The Australian Government, in partnership with the Lesotho National Manpower Development Secretariat, is offering a limited number of Australian Development Scholarships commencing in January 2011. The scholarships are for study for 12-24 months at Masters-level in Australia at Australian Universities.

Scholarships cover airfares, tuition fees, medical cover and a living allowance in Australia. Female applicants and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Study in Australia is subject to the successful applicant being issued with a visa by the Australian Department of Immigration & Citizenship (DIAC). As part of the visa application process, immigration authorities require candidates to undergo a full medical examination including a chest X-ray and an HIV/AIDS test.

Information about priority sectors, target groups and compliance criteria for the scholarships is outlined in the attached 'Desired Applicant Profile'.

Applicants who meet the criteria outlined in the 'Desired Applicant Profile' should submit the following documents to the National Manpower Development Secretariat, Linare Road (Opposite British High Commission), P.O. BOX 517, Maseru 100:

- a completed preliminary application form;
- a current curriculum vitae in English;
- a certified copy of your university degree(s) and transcripts; and
- a certified copy of your identity document.

Applicants may download the preliminary application form and other documents from the Lesotho page of www.adsafrica.com.au or collect hardcopies from the National Manpower Development Secretariat.

Once candidates have submitted their documents, they should email the following details to application@adsafrica.org as proof of submission: full name; country of residence; contact phone number; email address; date of submission of application; agency to whom application was submitted. Please quote the code "LES-ADS" in the email subject line.

Failure to complete the preliminary application form provided and submit all documentation requested will lead to automatic disqualification.

The deadline for submission of preliminary applications is 30 April 2010.

An independent selection panel, including representatives from the Government of Australia, will shortlist the candidates who best meet the criteria listed in the 'Desired Applicant Profile'. This will be undertaken during May 2010.

If you have not been contacted by end May 2010 for an interview, please consider your application unsuccessful. Only successful applicants will receive further communication.

Short-listed candidates will be invited for a subsequent face-to-face interview in July/August 2010.

The Australian Government reserves the right to vary the number and conditions of scholarships available.

STUDENTS WITH A DISABILITY

Many Australian institutions are able to offer 'reasonable' support to students with a disability in order to assist access to study. To assess the likely support needs, appropriate assistance, and the capacity of relevant institutions to provide the assistance, awardees with a disability/special need must provide details of the disability and/or special need upon acceptance of their scholarship offer. This information is bound by Australian privacy laws and will be disclosed only for the purpose of facilitating an accessible barrier-free learning environment.

Modifications to physical or learning environments, including additional educational supports such as sign interpreters and captioning, may be available dependant on the relevant institution's capacity.

AusAID will advise the Institution of any special requirements associated with a student so that the Institution can pass these details to the Institution's Disability Liaison Officer prior to the student arriving on-campus. Where applicants meet eligibility criteria and are selected for an Australian Development Scholarship, but the preferred Institution is not able to provide the assistance requested, other Institutions may be recommended.
